Headline:
Outbreaks of rain clearing to sunny spells and showers.

Today:
A cloudy morning with outbreaks of rain, occasionally heavy and accompanied by strong southerly winds near the coast. The rain will clear east then brightening up with a few showers, these mainly in the west. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry and chilly night with long clear spells and light winds. Some patchy fog and a touch of grass frost will develop in places. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Sunday:
A dry start but cloud and heavy rain will quickly spread north across all parts with strong southeasterly winds. Rain and winds will ease followed by scattered heavy showers. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Rather windy and cloudy on Monday with showers. Bright spells and a few showers on Tuesday then mainly dry on Wednesday. Feeling rather cold with winds turning northerly.
